Gordon H. Smith, Esq., is EVP of the Maine Medical Association. A Maine native, he graduated from the University of Maine with highest distinction in 1973 and from the Boston College Law School, magna cum laude, in 1976. He practiced law privately before coming to the Maine Medical Association as General Counsel in 1981. He is a past Chairman of the American Society of Medical Association Counsel, and the AMA/State Medical Society Litigation Center. Mr. Smith has also served as Chair of the Maine Health Data Organization and of the Executive Committee of the Advocacy Resource Center of the American Medical Association. He is also a former Chair of the Board of Quality Counts, a regional quality improvement collaborative and a former board member of the Maine Association of Area Agencies on Aging. He is a current board member of the Daniel Hanley Center for Health Leadership. In 2016, he was named by Maine Magazine as one of fifty Mainers influencing public policy and events in the state.

In 2015 Mr. Smith received the President's Award from the Maine Public Health Association for "exemplary service and commitment to the practice and profession of public health in the State of Maine". In 2016, he received the President's Award from the Maine Primary Care Association for "dedication to improving the quality, accessibility and value of health care in Maine". A frequent lecturer to medical groups on various medical legal subjects, Mr. Smith has served as Executive Vice President of the Maine Medical Association since September 1993 and has had a relationship with the Association dating back to September 1979.
