

Guide to Faculty Development Credit

MAINE MEDICAL EDUCATION TRUST

Overview

The MMET is pleased to offer Faculty Development Credit to physicians for the learning that occurs in the preparation and teaching of an original presentation at a live activity certified for AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™.

Who Can Claim Faculty Development Credit?

The following guidelines must be met to claim Faculty Development Credit:

Presenters wishing to claim Faculty Development Credit must be either an MD or a DO.

The individual claiming the credit must both prepare and teach the presentation.

The presentation must be the applicant's own original creation.

The presentation must be new; an applicant cannot claim credit for the same presentation more than once.

The activity in which the applicant is teaching must be a live activity – either virtual or in-person.

How to Claim Faculty Development Credit

AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM are awarded on a 4:1 ratio of credits to presentation time.

For example, if a presentation is 1 hour, then 4 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM may be awarded.
If the presentation time is 1.5 hours, then 6 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM may be awarded.

To claim Faculty Development Credit, the physician must complete the Faculty Development Credit Application which can be found on the MMET Activity Downloads webpage or requested from Elizabeth Ciccarelli, the MMET Director of Continuing Medical Education at eciccarelli@mainemed.com.

The Faculty Development Credit Application is designed to be started before or during the development of the presentation. It is then completed after the presentation as the physician is required to reflect on their learning and teaching. Faculty Development Credit Applications submitted prior to the presentation will not be accepted.

Application Fees

A fee is charged for the processing of the Faculty Development Credit Application and awarding of AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM.

| Category | Fee |
|--|------|
