

Mary Floyd Cushman, MD Award for
Exceptional Humanitarian Service as a Medical Volunteer

2023 Nomination Form * Nominations Are Due by Friday, July 28, 2023

The Maine Medical Association presents the Mary F. Cushman, MD Award each year to recognize the humanitarian service of medical volunteers who serve in Maine, the United States, or abroad. The award is announced at the MMA Annual Session, and includes a $1,000 donation to the institution or organization of the recipient's choice.

Priority consideration is given to:

- the nomination of a Maine physician who is a member of the Maine Medical Association.
- nominations submitted by members of the Maine Medical Association.
- nominations that, for international volunteering, include training people in other countries to provide care in their own communities.

On a separate page and in no more than 300 words, describe the nominee's humanitarian service, activities and accomplishments as a medical volunteer.
